1. In March or April of 1953 Engineer Kain (fnu) and Engineer Tokarski (fnu) were nominated Under Secretaries of State to the Ministry of the Foundry Industry. The former is in charge of production. He was Director of the Mala Panew Foundry. The latter is in charge of the refractory materials section. Formerly he was in charge of production in the Central Administration of the Industry for Refractory Goods in Gliwice (Gleiwitz).
2. The furnace recently commissioned in the Bierut Foundry is already out of commission. The slag broke through the wall near the discharge aperture, flooding and completely wrecking the furnace mechanism (Automatica). There was no loss of life.
3. The Ostrowiec Foundry has been re-named after the Stakhanovite worker Nowotka. The Katarzyna Foundry has also been renamed and is now to be known as the Buczka Foundry, after the hero Buczek.
